 ALICE REAVES NICHOLS, 8797 Redondo Drive, Dallas, Texas, telephone DA 1-3687, telephonically advised that on Monday evening, January 13, 1964, a Mr. DENSON, who identified himself as a private investigator employed by the defense attorneys for JACK L. RUBY, came to see her and talked to her for about one and one-half hours. This was in relation to her knowledge of JACK L. RUBY and particularly to any knowledge she had of the whereabouts of RUBY on November 22, 1963. She advised that she told Mr. DENSON what she knew and after he had gone that evening and during the next two or three days she recalled the interview she had had with SAs ALBERT SAYERS and PAUL L. SCOTT on November 25, 1963. She said she believed she had not told SAs SAYERS and SCOTT about a telephonic contact she had had with JACK L. RUBY on November 22, 1963.

She furnished the following information with regard to that telephonic contact:

62d She had been working at her regular job on that date and had gone out to lunch between 1:00 and 2:00 PM. She returned from lunch at about 2:00 PM and was advised that she had received a telephone call from JACK RUBY while she was out. He had left a telephone number for her to call. At about 2:10 PM she telephoned the number and the man answering sounded to her like a Negro. She said for this reason she believes the number was probably at the Carousel Club; however, she does not know this to be a fact. The man who answered the telephone told her that RUBY was on another telephone at the time, and she left her number at the office, Riverside 1-1321, and asked the man to have RUBY call her.

At about 2:15 PM she received a telephone call from JACK RUBY. This call lasted for only about one minute and RUBY was apparently calling to tell her what a terrible thing he thought it was that President KENNEDY had been assassinated.

11b RUBY again called her on November 22, 1963, at about 7:30 PM at her home. This was also a very short conversation, and he mentioned to her that he was going to the Synagogue. He also told her that his clubs were closed. She does not know from where RUBY was calling. This is the last contact of any kind she has had with JACK L. RUBY.

NICHOLS (ALICE R.) EXHIBIT No. 5356

She advised that she had received a subpoena which was issued by the defense to appear in court at Dallas on Monday, January 20, 1964.

She advised that the only other contact she has had other than the interview with SA SAYERS and SA SCOTT and the conversation with Mr. DENSON in connection with the JACK RUBY case has been a telephone call from SA LEO L. ROBERTSON of the FBI at Dallas and a telephone call on December 31, 1963, from a newsman of the Associated Press. She did not know that man's name and declined to discuss anything with him. She said when SA ROBERTSON called he asked her if the names of several people were known to her or familiar to her. She recalls that she did not know any of the people whom he named.
