CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — APPENDIX

September 3

You may owe your life or at least your liberty to the vigilance and sagacity of Oliver P. Oliver, who stopped an attempt by Harvey Oswald on the street and was murdered by the conspiracy’s well-trained but not infallible agent.

May not this be a case in which one could have stopped the John Birch Society, which is the answer to the question of the implications of the Watergate scandal. The Watergate scandal has shown us that one can stop the John Birch Society, which is the answer to the question of the implications of the Watergate scandal.

Mr. OLIVER. I thank you, sir.

An apparent reference to last November's language of Dallas, Dr. Oliver suggested that if Communist priests had not gone astray, we would have had "a national Sartorius of legalized violence under cover of which the international conspiracy could have gained control of the whole nation."

The way the plans went astray, of course, is that police caught the Marxists who killed the President. Some believing liberals already had blamed Dallas-right-wingers for the assassination. If Lee Oswald had not been caught, the radical liberals undoubtedly would have broadened and intensified their attack in an effort to discredit and vitriol many legitimate conservative organizations.

But to suggest that this would have become an orgy of legalized violence is to peer at the world through paranoid spectacles.

Dr. Oliver described the John Birch Society as "a potentially dangerous but principally functional solution to educate the American people" about the Communist conspiracy. We're all for that, if they'll stick to it.

There are forces in society which threaten America and all the free world. The U. S. Government does not seem sufficiently alert to the problem or adept at coping with it.

But irresponsible and inaccurate statements such as those made by Dr. Oliver are not effective substitutes for responsible commentary.

In the long run, Bircherites who talk like that do more harm than help the anti-Communist cause.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS
HON. JIM WRIGHT
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, September 3, 1964
Mr. WRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, September 30, 1964, when Mr. Marshall W. Arms reached the age of compulsory retirement, will retire from the public service. He is Marshall W. Arms, who has served admirably and effectively as regional director of the Public Housing Administration in the Fort Worth regional office.

He has served with distinction and success as regional director of the Public Housing Administration since the regional office was established in Fort Worth on June 30, 1930, except for approximately 5 years (1948-53), while Mr. Arms acted as general counsel of the agency in Washington, D.C. Mr. Arms was graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1929 and has served the Public Housing Administration for nearly 33 years of devoted exemplary Federal service on September 30, 1964, when he reaches the age of compulsory retirement, and we believe that it is appropriately fitting and reasonable that the extraordinary contributions he has made be recognized on the occasion of his retirement.

The best evidence of the exceptional ability and outstanding service in administering the program of financial assistance to local authorities are encouraged to utilize their low-rent housing units as stepping stones for self-improvement of low-income families, preliminary to advancement into more permanent quarters. Since 1939 over 65,000 low-rent units have been provided in the Southwestern States and more than 40,000 substantial units have been acquired by many low-income families that have progressed up the economic scale through the temporary help received in obtaining a decent place to live at a rent sufficiently low to be met by their limited means. A doctor who is now serving on the Board of our local housing authority recommended a doctor who lives in the same neighborhood; in many instances school he could not have come to medical school. Mr. Arms was graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1929 and has served the Public Housing Administration for nearly 33 years of devoted exemplary Federal service on September 30, 1964, when he reaches the age of compulsory retirement, and we believe that it is appropriately fitting and reasonable that the extraordinary contributions he has made be recognized on the occasion of his retirement.
