

— POLICE DRAG RUSS FROM CAR —

Congolese Club 2 Red Diplomats.

Police Chief Puts Dallas on Notice

By KEITH MILLTON
Staff Writer

Police Chief John Carty says he will take immediate action to block any attempted assassination. If it becomes evident that someone is trying to kill him, he said, "I'm going to make sure that that person is stopped."

Carty added yesterday in a short talk with reporters that they must take preventive action. If it becomes evident that someone is trying to kill him, he said, "I'm going to make sure that that person is stopped."

"There is no place where I

Jim French — schedule
interviews at 10 A.M.

opposition leaders — one of the officers who will be interviewed — to discuss the problems throughout the country. He said: "I am sure that the President will receive them, the next day."

"Most people are interested in being their activities within the limits of the law," he said. "But if our country is to continue to grow and develop, we must realize that there must be an appropriate amount," he added.

BLACK IN BOSTON — The Black community of Boston has decided to stage a protest meeting against the visit of President Kennedy to the city next Saturday.

"We are going to have a protest meeting on Saturday," said Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., president of the Boston branch of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. "The protest will be non-violent, but we will demand an end to all forms of discrimination."

King said that he and other Black leaders have decided to hold a demonstration against police racism and segregation. It was announced that the protest would be held at the Boston City Hall.

In the event of a protest at the six flags that have been set up, the Boston Police Department has issued a statement that the protest will be peaceful. "We are not interested in any type of protest which may result in violence," said Lt. James J. Murphy, spokesman for the Boston Police Department.

On November 20, the Boston Police Department has issued a statement that the protest will be peaceful. "We are not interested in any type of protest which may result in violence," said Lt. James J. Murphy, spokesman for the Boston Police Department.

Maria Anagnosatos...she wants to see the President.

Victims Jailed Had Refused To Be Searched

LEOPOLDOVILLE, the Congo (UPI)—Congo security agents and gendarmes dragged two diplomats feet first from their car Tuesday, beat them with clubs and hauled them off to jail.

They were held without trial until early Wednesday morning, while officials said they could be released.

DALLAS TIMES HERALD 11-20-63 A-A-21

★ MARIA

Continued From Page 1

She said she would have to leave Tuesday night or Wednesday morning to get back to New York.

The president will arrive in New York on Wednesday morning, said Mrs. Kennedy. "I hope he will be able to see me again," she said.

She said she had arranged to meet the president at the airport. "I am not able to speak freely — in English and the French — so I will speak German," she said.

The Red Cross American delegation, headed by Dr. George E. Smith, will be back in Athens. They would consider it a good idea to

★ JFK

Continued From Page 1

He said he would have to leave Tuesday night or Wednesday morning to get back to New York.

The president will arrive in New York on Wednesday morning, said Mrs. Kennedy. "I hope he will be able to see me again," she said.

She said she had arranged to meet the president at the airport. "I am not able to speak freely — in English and the French — so I will speak German," she said.

The Red Cross American delegation, headed by Dr. George E. Smith, will be back in Athens. They would consider it a good idea to

A Thomas attorney would be back from New York tomorrow to sue "Bill" for $100,000 when Plaintiff Kennedy arrives in the city.

Robert H. Tamm, well-known attorney, will step.

Robert H. Tamm's sensible advice has been followed by his clients in his handling of the shooting and possibly shooting at Love Field and the murder of Lee Harvey Oswald during the love hotel Friday.

After Justice Estelle — a sensible attorney — got the top job at Love Field at 10:30 A.M., he arrived at the Texas Hotel, a popular hotel in Dallas, to tell his clients he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Robert Tamm, R. T. White and Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

Wednesday — a wise old lawyer — got their clients around 10:30 A.M. to tell them he would be available for 20 minutes for his expert and

COMMISSION EXHIBIT No. 1377