

Commission Exhibit No. 1644

Date 12/18/63

1
Mrs. ANN WOODRUFF, 3636 Hearthstone, telephone CH. 7-8463, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed, in that her name was found in RUBY's automobile.

She advised that about two or three months ago, possibly August or September, she observed an ad in the Dallas Morning News offering a night club for sale. In that a friend of hers, who lives out of Dallas, was interested in purchasing a small night club, she wrote a letter to the newspaper box number requesting additional information regarding this night club and gave her phone number. Sometime later, she received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as "Mr. RUBY," who described the night club as a strip club, and she told him that this was not the type of night club her friend would be interested in purchasing.

She related that this is the only time she has ever talked to RUBY and she has never seen RUBY in person. She stated she could furnish absolutely no information concerning RUBY or his activities, and had no knowledge of any association between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated she did not know OSWALD.

on 12/14/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639
by Special Agent TOM E. CHAPOTON, JR./eah Date dictated 12/17/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT No. 1644

Date 12/4/63

1
CHESTER ARTHUR MYERS, JR., who resides at 3920 Travis, Apartment D, Dallas, Texas, furnished the following information:

MYERS is an employee of the Cabana Motel, Dallas, and he assists in the operation of the lounges and clubs at the Cabana Motel. He was born August 3, 1929, at Sherman, Texas.

He first became acquainted with JACK RUBY during the period 1950 - 1953, when RUBY was operating the Silver Spur Club in Dallas which he, MYERS, frequented. In about 1955, MYERS became acquainted with EVA RUBY GRANT, sister of JACK RUBY, who was then operating the Vegas Club, Dallas, Texas.

In 1957, MYERS returned to Dallas, Texas, from Sherman, Texas, where he had been attending Austin College. Since 1957, MYERS has been employed at various night club establishments and, through his employment, has maintained contact and association with JACK RUBY and EVA RUBY GRANT, on both a professional and social basis.

MYERS recalled that EVA GRANT once told him that she started the Silver Spur Club for the purpose of having her brother, JACK RUBY, take over the club operation when he returned from military service.

MYERS could recall only one instance when RUBY displayed a violent temper and physically ejected a patron from his club. MYERS stated that he recalled other instances when patrons became obnoxious and belligerent at RUBY's club at which time, in MYERS' opinion, RUBY would have been justified in ejecting them from the establishment; however, on these other occasions, RUBY did maintain his composure and did not eject them physically.

MYERS described RUBY as a person who, at times, is highly temperamental and excitable. He described RUBY as a person who could not be termed a big spender or a flashy dresser, or one who would try to impress people. According to MYERS, RUBY is the type of person who, upon

on 12/3/63 at Dallas, Texas File # DL 44-1639
by Special Agent S. JAMES S. WEIR & RICHARD E. HARRISON/eah Date dictated 12/3/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT No. 1645

accepting a person as his friend, will do anything for that person, conversely, if RUBY takes a disliking to a person, he will express his sentiments and will go out of his way to avoid any contact with such a person. MYERS feels that RUBY considers him as a friend.

RUBY once offered MYERS a job as floorman or manager of the Sovereign Club at the Carousel Club. RUBY advised MYERS that he, RUBY, would give him the food concession if he would take the job. MYERS felt that RUBY was, at the time of that offer, making a sincere offer to him, as RUBY stated MYERS would have the final say in the operation of the Sovereign Club. MYERS turned down the job, as he felt that RUBY subsequently would not be able to refrain from injecting his, RUBY's, ideas into the operation of the Sovereign Club. MYERS was of the opinion that RUBY, at that time, had ideas of capturing the "carriage trade" and he, RUBY, did not feel he had the personality to cope with this type of clientele.

Approximately three or four years ago, MYERS heard what he termed "gossip," from now unrecalled sources, that RUBY was a homosexual. MYERS stated he had no specific information that would substantiate this allegation. MYERS recalled that RUBY liked to have big, athletic-type men in his employ and, at the same time, liked to have young, good-looking boys in his employ.

In all the years MYERS has known RUBY, MYERS can recall only one instance when RUBY had a date with a woman. In approximately 1957, when MYERS was a waiter at the Twin Tree Club in Dallas, MYERS received a telephone call from RUBY. RUBY told MYERS of his date for that evening and he had called MYERS to ask MYERS the type of wine he should order with the dinner and for any other general information, in an apparent effort to impress his woman companion. RUBY, on many occasions, would take his female employees out to coffee or lunch but, in MYERS' opinion, RUBY had no social interest in any of them. According to MYERS, RUBY's sole interests were in his club and his dogs. RUBY did not appear to be interested in politics nor did he appear to be a religious man; however, MYERS did recall that EVA GRANT, RUBY's sister, once mentioned that JACK was a religious man.

MYERS stated that prior to approximately six months ago RUBY, from time to time, had periods of financial stress at the Carousel Club. EVA GRANT had mentioned to MYERS that JACK RUBY, on occasions, would come to the Vegas Club, which she operated, and take money from her receipts in order to pay the salaries of his employees at the Carousel Club. Within the last six months, RUBY has indicated to MYERS that his business at the Carousel Club had improved.

MYERS is not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, nor does he have any information which would indicate RUBY and OSWALD knew each other.

MYERS stated he was at a loss to explain why RUBY shot OSWALD as he did.