INVESTIGATION MADE AT Dallas, Texas		PERIOD COVERED		Jack Leon Ruby - slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with murder of President Kennedy
INVESTIGATION MADE BY SAIC Forrest V. Sorrels
DETAILS
STORY
Jack Ruby, questioned by SAIC Forrest V. Sorrels shortly after Ruby shot Lee Harvey Oswald in basement of police station, Dallas, Texas, about 11:20 A.M., Nov. 24, 1963.
DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION
On the morning of November 24, 1963, Inspector Tom Kelley and I were in the offices of Assistant Chief of Police Charles Batchelor on the third floor of the City Hall, Dallas, Texas, shortly after 11 A.M. Inspector Kelley and I went to the basement of the city hall where we heard that Oswald had been shot and I observed Oswald on the floor of the jail office and contours appeared to be administering artificial respiration. I then went to a nearby phone and called Deputy Chief Paul Fawcett in Washington and informed him in re to the above.
I then went to office of Capt. Will Prite, Homicide Bureau, but found that he was not there. I made inquiries as to whereabouts of Jack Ruby and was informed that he had been taken to the city jail. I then went to the jail elevator and after identifying myself was taken to the fifth floor of the jail and to a cell where Jack Ruby was standing with the uniformed officers, one on each side of him. Ruby only had on his shorts as his clothes had apparently been taken from him. I identified myself to Ruby and informed him that I would like to ask him some questions. He seemed to know if it was for newspapers or magazines and I told him it was not. We seemed to hesitate and I told him that I had seen Horst Joe (Robin Goldstein, a well known Jewish pawn broker and used tools dealer on Main Street) across the street just a short time before and that I knew a number of the Jewish
