MONTON PAZOL was interviewed at Muncie, Indiana, and advised as follows:

PAZOL admitted joining the Communist Party (CP) in Indianapolis, Indiana, sonotize during the year of 1940. Ee was unable to recall the exact date. He advised he voluntarily weat to Indianapolis and looked up an Indianapolis attorney, whose name he was not able to recall, advisud hin he desired to becaue a member of the CP. PAZOL further advised he withdrew from the CP sometime during the year of 1947. He was unable to recall the exact date of his dropping membership with the CP. He stated the reason he dropped out of the CP was because he no longer was in sympathy with their ideas. He advised the only "encounthe joined the CP in the first place was because he considered their activities the same as a Labor Union and he was active and interfacted in labor activities in Euncie, Indiana. He admitted he was a subscriber to "The Worker", but stated

PAZOL has stated several meetings were held by him in Euncie, Indiana, during his nembership in the CP and that these meetings were held in his homo. He stated he did not consider then CP meetings but study groups who were studying the Communist philosophy and doctrines. He further advised the idea of control of this country by Russia was never discussed at any meetings held in his home or any of the CP meetings he attended in Indianapolis. He advised if his wife had been a member of the CP, it was only because of the fact she was married to him and she did not possess any sympathies for the CP.

NORTON PAZOL was interviewed at Pazol's Jewelers, and was exhibited photographs of JACK RUBY which appeared in "Muncie Star" newspaper, issue of November 26, 1963, and he stated RUBY mad/or RUDENSTEIN unknown to him. He admitted knowing GECOL WILLLAW FRIENBACK? Stating the latter had worked for SAN JAFTE many years ago. He stated SAN JAFTE dod about four years ago while he was residing in Florida. He donied any hnowledge of or attendance of Communist Party meetings at Muncie, Indiana in 1942 or 1947-1948, of any individual identifiable with JACK RUBY. He does not know the names of the sons-in-law of SAN JAFTE, but stated LAWSON JAFTE, bepter of SAN JAFTE, but specently in jewelry business in Dayton, Chic, should know the identity of sonsin-law.

MORTON PAZOL savised no Communist Party meetings were ever held in Muncie at SAM JAFFE's Jowelry Store to his knowledge. He also stated no Union Hall was located above this store, but that in early and middle 1040s, a gambling joint was located there. He advised he does not recall ever going to this gambling joint and he does not recall SAM JAFFE's sons-in-law ever coming to Muncis, Indiana, from Chicago, Illinois, but believed they lived in Muncis until at least the late 1940s, but he cannot be sure of this.

He advised he did not recall RUBEN RESNIKOFF, also known as RUBY COOPER, a "Daily Worker" correspondent of Chicago, Illinois, who visited Indiana on numerous occasions during the 1940s and as late as 1948.
