The second investigator arrived in Dallas on June 3, 1963. After making connection with the first investigator, he was introduced to subject Duff. On June 4, 1963, both investigators discussed the assassination of Gen. Walker with subject Duff, and agreed to pay Duff $3,000.00 to assassinate Gen. Walker. At this time both investigators and the subject Duff drove to the area of Walker's home and plans were discussed for the actual assassination, the escape route, the weapon to be used, and method in which the subject Duff would leave the country after the assassination. All of the conversation in regards to the assassination that was discussed with the subject Duff was recorded on a Naback Midgetape.

The tape recording was played to Gen. Walker on June 5, 1963. On June 6, 1963, Gen. Walker and Mr. Watts decided that they would contact the local police and advise them of the happenings and leave any further investigation to them.

On June 7, 1963, both investigators were advised to meet with Lt. Cunningham and advise him of the happenings. Upon meeting Lt. Cunningham the investigators accompanied him to Police Headquarters where the events were discussed at length with Lt. Cunningham, Capt. James and the Chief of Staff, and the recordings were played for those concerned. The results of this meeting were that the Police Dept. would continue the investigation. The recording was left in the custody of the Police Dept. at the instructions of Gen. Walker.
