

Mr. BALL. Red copy of the invoice being—
Mr. MICHAELIS. No; was attached to the red copy of the invoice, exhibit number—
Mr. BALL. Two.
Mr. MICHAELIS. Indicates that the money was received.
Mr. BALL. I see. Now, these documents were delivered to the Federal Bureau of Investigation by you, were they not?
Mr. MICHAELIS. Through Mr. Wood; yes.
Mr. BALL. And these documents, Exhibits 2 to 5, inclusive, are original documents, are they not?
Mr. MICHAELIS. Yes.
Mr. BALL. Exhibit 1 being a photostat of the page in your looseleaf notebook?
Mr. MICHAELIS. Correct.
Mr. BALL. Which carries the record of the sale, record of the item?
Mr. MICHAELIS. Correct.
Mr. BALL. And does anybody in your organization that you know of have any personal knowledge of packing this particular gun and shipping it?
Mr. MICHAELIS. I doubt very much that the packer would remember this particular parcel.
Mr. BALL. About how many guns of this type do you sell and ship out of here in a year?
Mr. MICHAELIS. In 1 year?
Mr. BALL. Yes; just a general estimate.
Mr. MICHAELIS. For Seaport Traders?
Mr. ROSE. That type of gun—we sell more .22's.
Mr. BALL. Well, about how many?
Mr. MICHAELIS. Seaport Traders, I would say that—this is a rough guess, Mr. Ball. This particular type, that Seaport Traders might have sold maybe 120 in a year; 120, 150 in a year.
Mr. BALL. Would that be sold through mail order, or both mail order—
Mr. MICHAELIS. I am talking about particularly mail-order business from Seaport Traders.
Mr. BALL. 120 or 125?
Mr. MICHAELIS. 120, 150, of this particular type of gun.
Mr. BALL. Is there anything else that you know about this particular transaction that you would like to tell me?
Mr. MICHAELIS. No, sir; I believe I answered all the questions of this transaction.

TESTIMONY OF ROY S. TRULY

The testimony of Roy S. Truly was taken at 2:30 p.m., on May 14, 1964, in the office of the U.S. attorney, 301 Post Office Building, Bryan and Ervay Streets, Dallas, Tex., by Mr. Joseph A. Ball, assistant counsel of the President's Commission.

Mr. BALL. Now, Mr. Truly, this is a continuation of your deposition. I took the last one and you have been sworn and I don't know that it is exactly necessary for you to take the oath again, since this is a continuation of the deposition. I took the last one, didn't I?

Mr. TRULY. Oh, no; I gave a statement that was under oath.

Mr. BALL. Oh, no; this is a deposition. You appeared before the Commission—that's right.

Mr. TRULY. Mr. Belin took my sworn deposition also about a week before I went up there when you both were in Dallas and he also took a recorded deposition.

Mr. BALL. Yes; but that was just an investigation, an inquiry. We didn't record that. You weren't under oath then. Will you stand up and be sworn? Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you are about to give before this Commission will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. TRULY. I do.
