During the ensuing general conversation with Marina Oswald she indicated that she was very tired from the previous evening due to the interruption by the FBI agents and that she was worried whether the Hartins family liked her during the time she spent with them on Thanksgiving Day. She was also worried as to the length of time she could stay with the Hartins and what sort of work they are considering for her. Upon arrival of James Martin at the cottage occupied by Marina Oswald, the above mentioned problems were related to him and he stated that Marina could stay with them as long as she wanted and that all they wanted her to do was to be happy and for her to feel as a member of their family. Marina Oswald also indicated that she would rather move from the cottage the following day than the same evening which was agreeable to Mr. Martin. During that evening the reporting agent felt that Marina Oswald expressed additional confidence in the reporting agent and in fact she was very disappointed when the agent departed.

On November 30, 1963, the reporting agent accompanied by SA Blake proceeded to the Six Flags Inn for the purpose of additional questioning of Marina Oswald about some matters which were of interest to the Service. Marina Oswald was questioned concerning the origin of the black wallet containing $100.00 in cash and the identity of Byron Phillips of the Milbarger County, Texas, who executed an affidavit of financial responsibility for her entrance into the United States. She stated that the money in the amount of $100.00 represented their savings from her husband's wages and that $10.00 was given to her by the newspaper man; that Lee Oswald was very stingy with his money; tried to exist on as little as possible and never bought anything for himself. She was asked whether he was lazy and did not like to work and she replied in the negative as he needed to work and was very concerned about his financial responsibility.

Regarding Byron Phillips, she stated that neither she nor Lee ever saw Byron Phillips, that she had heard that her mother-in-law, Marguerite Oswald worked for him as a practical nurse during the time she (Mrs. Oswald) was residing in Vernon, Texas, and that Mrs. Oswald asked Mr. Phillips to execute the necessary affidavit. Marina Oswald further stated that the affidavit in question was given to her husband by his mother upon their arrival in Fort Worth, Texas, and that she kept it always in the places where they lived. She was also questioned concerning whether or not she over saw in Lee's possession paraphernalia showing pictures of the late President Kennedy requesting that he be indicted for treason and what the negative. In connection with curtain rods mentioned by Lee Oswald to Wesley Frazier as the latter drove Lee to work Friday morning, she stated that she never saw any rods in the Fraziers house or in the garage as Mrs. Ruth Fraziers only had Venetian blinds.

Marina Oswald also stated that when she was shown, by the reporting agent, pictures of Lee Oswald holding a rifle she did not advise at that time that she had seen any pictures but in smaller sizes pasted in her family album but that upon suggestion of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald she destroyed them upon learning that she was going to move to another cemetery.
Her husband was a prime suspect in the shooting of the President. She also related that the Thursday evening (November 21, 1963) when Lee Oswald appeared at the Park's house unexpectedly, he told her to buy anything the children needed from their savings, that he appeared to be nervous, that he asked to have her over due to their previous domestic quarrel and that he went to bed at about 2:00 P.M. the same evening. According to Marina Oswald, when she went to bed around 10:00 P.M., she felt that he was not asleep as shortly after he touched her to see if she were asleep. Marina Oswald further stated that the following day (Friday) when she got up from her bed, after the departure of her husband, she noticed his wedding ring laying on the top of their bedroom dresser. She stated that he never, to her knowledge, took off his ring before, and that at that time she thought it was a strange thing for him to do.

During the ride transporting Marina Oswald and her two children to the Martin's residence located at 11611 Farnam Street, Dallas, Texas, Marina Oswald was constantly talking concerning her husband trying to analyze his reactions and possible reason for killing the President. She said that on numerous occasions he would drop on his knees in front of her crying, saying that he was lost, did not know what to do and was confused in his way of life. Marina Oswald also stated that her husband always tried to improve himself, but that he mostly was concentrating in reading books about the great men of the world, their achievements and their contribution to the world. Marina Oswald is of the opinion that her husband was an ego-manic who wanted to be a 'big man' but that in failing to be so he decided to show the whole world how he was by killing the President so that the whole world would know his name. Marina Oswald also stated that while they were living in the Soviet Union, Lee Oswald indicated the lack of freedom of speech in Russia, the travel restrictions and in some way he was disappointed in the way he was treated there.

The trip from the Six Flags Inn to the Martin's residence was without any incident and no further pertinent information was received from Marina Oswald in this case.

On December 1, 1963, the reporting agent accompanied by St. Ginz proceeded to the Martin's residence for the purpose of taking Marina Oswald and her family to the cemetery which visit she previously requested. Upon arrival of the Robert Oswald family from Denton, Texas, with Special Agents James Lackey and Talorge Harley, the Oswalds decided that only Marina and Robert Oswald would go to the cemetery. Both Oswalds, including Marina's daughter, were taken to the Rose Hill cemetery located in Park North, Texas, in the government car preceded by plain police car occupied by two plain clothes police officers. On the way to the cemetery Marina Oswald bought azalea plant and one dozen white carnations from a florist shop. Upon arrival at the cemetery Marina Oswald placed the flowers at the Lee Oswald grave, then wrote in Russian that the azalea plant was for his wife and for him to rest in peace. The carnations were from his children. Marina Oswald was very pleased to see that the grave contained a white flag with many other flowers. There were not many spectators and the grave was guarded by the Fort Worth police car with a uniform policeman.
