Mr. JOSEPH P. GRINNAN, 811 Wilson Building, who resides at 4640 Southern, and is employed as an independent oil operator, advised he had solicited funds which had been used to pay for the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News," on November 22, 1963. This full-page ad was signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman. GRINNAN said he could think of four individuals who contributed somewhere around $1,500 "give or take a hundred," which was used to pay for the ad in the "Dallas Morning News."

He said that he had become acquainted with JARRIE SCHMIDT, a friend of BERNARD WEISSMAN, at a meeting of an organization called the "Young Americans for Freedom." He said JARRIE SCHMIDT and BERNARD WEISSMAN were soldier friends, having served in the Army together, and through JARRIE SCHMIDT he became acquainted with BERNARD WEISSMAN. JARRIE SCHMIDT was ed to protest the visit of President KENNEDY to Dallas on November 22, 1963, in a dignified way; therefore, they got together and JARRIE SCHMIDT wrote the ad with some suggestions by GRINNAN. GRINNAN stated he did not write out anything when the advertisement was being written. He said the four contributors for the advertisement read the advertisement before publication.

GRINNAN stated that the American Fact-Finding Committee was a paper name only and that no organization sponsored this advertisement, other than the American Fact-Finding Committee, which name they used up. He said that if anyone composed the American Fact-Finding Committee it was himself, JARRIE SCHMIDT, and a fellow named BILL from Baltimore, Maryland, who was a friend of JARRIE SCHMIDT and BERNARD WEISSMAN. He said he was pretty sure that BERNARD WEISSMAN took the advertisement to the "Dallas Morning News" and made arrangements for its publication. He said they intended no personal harm to come to the President.

Regarding the source of the funds to pay for the advertisement, he said he was reluctant to give the names of the contributors, because he did not want to hurt anyone. He said...
